Getting my dick licked

My daughter is my biggest achievement. Close second is gaining a 1st class honours in my law degree, completing a masters in law and gaining a career job.

Going to university

Became Director of a business and won several awards from The Sunday Times.

Running my own successful business

Fulfilling my career ambitions

Paying our own way and our children being brought up in a hardworking home

Getting a skydiving licence

Qualifications

My baby passing all GCSEs grade c and above

I have a diploma in health and welfare, and I am working full time

Passing driving test

Owning my own home, getting married and giving a secure home to my children through hard work and determination

Haveing 3 beautifull children

Being a mum with drive to study and be a success for both of us.

I now am a Uni Student

Still being together as a family

After termination and finding myself in a very bad place and completely unsupported by family and father of child, I started another job, re-started my education and now have a fantastic job within the Education Sector.

Moving into my own rented property back to work when baby was 6 weeks old

Studying the occupation I want to be in

After becoming a single teenage mother, I then went on to train as a nurse

Getting a job and driving

Progressing a career

Degree gained and now successful teaching career

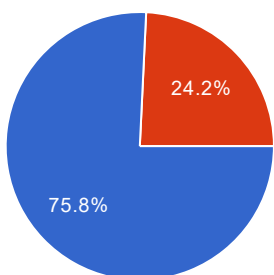

I'm at university training to be a mental health nurse

Starting an open university course, and raising my 3 children on my own

Raising him well

If there are any other details us would like us to have please use this space.

Type of housing my daughter lives in now would be the other side of the world with her adoptive parents Employment status of us teen parents now- he's married with still the same job working full time and I am now married at home with 3 children x

I remember once a week hanging around for hours outside glascote surgery with quite a few friends trying to get the courage to go inside, Free condoms came at a price to teens - having to walk inside & facing middle aged people, feeling frowned upon, regurly we left without any.

Got Pregnant using contraception

You ask if the baby was carried to term which in my case it wasn't. Then the questions after only relate to a full term baby being born. I think another big issue is miscarriage and still birth anongst teen/young families and the lack of support. Many professions dismissed my grief because they assumed I wouldn't want the baby due to my young age. A late stage miscarriage can be devastating and teen parents are very often looked over when it comes to talking about this issue.

With regards to my parents working. My mum worked full time. I don't know what my father did, as I didn't have any contact. You do not give a choice option of just mother working?

This questionnaire was terribly written and formatted. Go back to school

I am really passionate about teen and single parents achieving and moving on. I would love to share my experiences or mentor a young single parent. I would also love to get involved in any kind of activity like this if it exists. My details are below. Kate Green 07985302755

I would welcome the opportunity to be involved in projects working with schools and Young people on this topic please contact me on 07969430158

I'm happy to give further details. My email address is rallingham06@aol.com

That with out elderwick court bromford housing we wouldn't be where we are today and I would know or be able to do the things I can do today

Teen pregnancy isn't always a bad thing! It changed my life for the better, I am very proud of where I am now! 07583421691
