EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

It is good practice for organisations to provide stakeholders with a plan of future activity.

Per the Council's values and its need for openness and accountability, there is a requirement to produce a public statement describing the Council's intentions for the financial year ahead, the rationale for these and the ways in which the Council will ensure success.

The Corporate Plan 2012-13 is attached.

The Corporate Plan has been graphically designed and will be posted on the Council's internet site for access on demand.
