On this auspicious occasion I am announcing that I do intend to step down as Leader of the Conservative Group and as Leader of this Council at the end of this evening's meeting. I've had many changes and extra demands on family and work over the last few months so I need to refocus and realign. But I would like to say it's been a great honour to work with these guys and you guys over the last 6 months. You haven't seen the last of me and I shall be sitting on the back seats.

I do want to reinforce what Cllr Dean has said. I think that what it has done has produced an atmosphere where we can collaborate together than we could previously, I think it has been a mature set of politics and I'm sorry you are stepping down but I do wish you well in the future and I'm sure your business will go from strength to strength.

Councillor D Cook made the following announcement.

Just to echo what others have said, I would like to thank Cllr Turner for his service to this council. Obviously, I have sat in his shoes and I know what it is like to surrender the leadership and it's not an easy decision. Glad you got to do it better than I did, we were in the middle of covid and I had to do it on Teams. Thank you for your service.

It a great shame to see Cllr Turner is standing down, and as one of the lone independents it's been a pleasure to be able to work with Cllr Turner in his role as leader, he has served this town well for the past 6 months that he has been the Leader of Tamworth and he has served from my perspective and I don't know about from anybody else's he has put this town on a serious track where we are going to see wonderful events and some wonderful changes take place for the real benefit of the people of Tamworth over the coming months and years and I only hope that the Conservative group can find somebody of equal stature to fill Cllr Turner's shoes.

I would like to go on record to say thank you to my colleague Cllr Turner for all that he's done for me personally and for us. This is the kind of man Cllr turner is. I turned up to a meeting 'ex service man' forgot my poppy, I was in a rush sat sown next to Paul and the first thing he did was took his spare poppy off his coat and gave it to me, and that for me is the mark of a man who would never see any one of us struggling at all and can I say my heartfelt thanks for everything you have done and I wish you well for the future and I know you wont be a stranger and that you will always be in and around and will be ringing me 14 times a day even from the back benches but it is welcome.

Cllr T Jay made the following announcement.
