Report of the Assistant Director - Partnerships

Modern Slavery Statement 2022/23

Exempt Information

None

Purpose

To endorse the Council's Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2022/23

Recommendations

It is recommended that:

1. The Committee endorse the Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2022/23 for publication on the Council website in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015

Executive Summary

Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 imposes a legal duty on organisations, which supply goods and/or services from or to the UK and have a global turnover above £36 million, to publish a slavery and human trafficking statement covering each financial year.

The statement is due for publication by 30 September each year immediately following the end of the preceding financial year.

There are no financial or criminal penalties for failing to produce a slavery and human trafficking statement, although the Secretary of State can apply to the Court for an injunction to force an organisation to produce a statement.

Tamworth Borough Council adopts a zero-tolerance position on known violations of anti-human trafficking and anti-modern slavery laws and is included in Safeguarding policies and duties. We are committed to improving our practices and ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business and in so far as is possible requiring our suppliers to hold similar ethos.

The council has a key role to play in tackling modern slavery, including in identifying and supporting victims and working in partnership locally and can be separated into four distinct areas:

- identification and referral of victims
- supporting victims – this can be through safeguarding children and adults with care and support needs and through housing/homelessness services
- community safety services and disruption activities
- ensuring that the supply chains councils procure from are free from modern slavery

The Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement (attached as Appendix 1) sets out the continuing council's actions to understand potential modern slavery risks related to its business and ongoing actions to ensure that there is no slavery or human tracking in its own business, and its supply chains and relates to actions and activities during the financial year

1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023 and (once endorsed) will be published on the Tamworth Borough Council website.

The statement has been endorsed by the Corporate Management Team and signed by the Chief Executive. The actions are ongoing and included as part of the wider community safety plans and safeguarding policies.

Background Information

Modern slavery is an international crime, affecting an estimated 49.6 million people around the world. It is a growing global issue that transcends age, gender and ethnicities. It includes victims who have been brought from overseas and vulnerable people in the UK, who are forced to illegally work against their will across many different sectors such as agriculture, hospitality, construction, retail and manufacturing.

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 consolidates various offences relating to human trafficking and slavery. In broad terms:

- 'slavery' is where ownership is exercised over a person.
- 'servitude' involves coercion to oblige a person to provide services.
- 'Forced and compulsory labour' is where a person works or provides services on a non-voluntary basis under the threat of a penalty.
- 'Human trafficking' involves arranging or facilitating the travel of a person with a view to exploiting them.

Section 52 of the Act imposes a duty on public authorities, including district councils, to notify the Secretary of State of suspected victims of slavery or human trafficking.

Section 54 of the Act imposes a legal duty on organisations, which supply goods and/or services from or to the UK and have a global turnover above £36 million, to publish a slavery and human trafficking statement each financial year.

The Council engages in commercial activity (statutory and discretionary) and provides a range of services to residents, businesses and visitors. This includes waste collection and recycling, collection of council tax and business rates, housing, homeless support, parks and open spaces, planning and building control, street cleaning, promoting economic growth and regeneration, environmental health, leisure services, community safety and election administration. Services are delivered through a mixture of direct provision, commissioned services, contracted services, joint/shared services, and partnerships. Its annual turnover is greater than £36 million.
