

LICENSING SUB COMMITTEE HEARING

DATE OF COMMITTEE
14th August 2013

Report of the Director
Assets & Environment

Consideration of a request from the Police for the removal of the designated premises supervisor from the premises licence in respect of Reminisce 79-80 Bolebridge Street Tamworth Staffordshire B79 7PD.

EXEMPT INFORMATION

Not applicable

PURPOSE

For the Licensing Sub Committee to consider an objection notice given by the Chief Officer of Police under Section 37(5) of the Licensing Act 2003 requesting the removal of the designated premises supervisor, Neil John Hatherall, from the premises licence held in respect of Reminisce 79-80 Bolebridge Street Tamworth Staffordshire B79 7PD. The Chief Officer of Police must object to an application to vary a premises licence to specify an individual as designated premises supervisor if the exceptional circumstances of the case are such that granting the application would undermine the crime prevention objective.

The decision whether or not to allow the continuation of Neil John Hatherall in the post of designated premises supervisor has not been made under Officer's delegated powers because the Licensing Act requires the decision to be made at a hearing.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Licensing Sub Committee must, having regard to the Section 37(5) objection notice served by the Police (see Appendix 2), take one of the following steps it considers appropriate for the promotion of the crime prevention objective:

- Grant the application – this would allow the designated premises supervisor, Neil John Hatherall, to continue in his post; or
- Reject the application – This would remove the designated premises supervisor from his post.

RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS

If the decision of the Licensing Sub Committee is appealed there will be a financial resource implication.

LEGAL/ RISK IMPLICATIONS BACKGROUND

There is a right of appeal against the decision made by this licensing committee.

The applicant, AM Entertainment (UK) Ltd, may appeal against a decision to reject the application and the Police may appeal against the decision to grant the application.

Any such appeal must be made to the Magistrates' court within 21 days beginning with the day on which the appellant was notified by the licensing authority of the decision appealed against.

On an appeal the Magistrates' court may –

- (a) dismiss the appeal,
- (b) substitute for the decision appealed against for any other decision which could have been made by the licensing authority, or
- (c) remit the case to the licensing authority to dispose of in accordance with the direction of the court, and
- (d) may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.

SUSTAINABILITY IMPLICATIONS

None.

CONCLUSIONS

The Licensing Sub Committee must determine the variation of the application to specify a new designated premises supervisor application with a view to promoting the crime prevention licensing objective.

In making its decision the Licensing Sub- Committee must follow the Licensing Authority's own licensing policy (Appendix 4) and the national guidance issued by the Home Office (Appendix 3). In particular, the Sub-Committee should have due regard to paragraph 1.17 of the Home Office guidance which states that each application must be considered on its own merits and paragraphs 4.18 to 4.28 of Chapter 4 which specifically relate to the specification of new designated premises supervisors.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Premises licences are used by premises licence holders for the carrying on of licensed activities. The sale and supply of alcohol, because of its impact on the wider community and on crime and anti-social behaviour, carries with it a greater responsibility than the provision of regulated entertainment and late night refreshment. For this reason if the licence permits the supply of alcohol, the licence holder must appoint a Designated Premises Supervisor. The designated premises supervisor must hold a personal licence. Additionally, every sale of alcohol must be made or authorised by a personal licence holder.

The Designated Premises Supervisor will normally be the person who has been given day to day responsibility for running the premises by the premises licence holder. Both the designated premises supervisor and premises licence holder remain responsible for the premises at all times including compliance with the requirements of the Licensing Act 2003.

A licence holder can apply to the licensing authority to change the designated premises supervisor. A copy of the Application to vary a premises licence to specify an individual as designated premises supervisor under the Licensing Act 2003 submitted by the applicant, AM Entertainment (UK) Ltd., is given in Appendix 1.

The premises licence was first granted in 2005. It was transferred to the current premises licence holder, A M Entertainment (UK) Ltd, on 1st August 2012. The premises is shown shaded on the location plan (Appendix 5). Several applications have been made to change the premises licence since the licence was granted. These changes are summarised in Appendix 9.

Several Temporary Event Notices have been submitted in respect of Reminisce. Temporary Event Notices submitted for 2012 and 2013 are summarised in Appendix 7. One of the eight Temporary Event Notices submitted in 2012 was objected to by the Police and a counter notice was served which prevented this event from taking place.

In the application to be considered by the Licensing Sub Committee, the premises licence holder proposed Neil John Hatherall to be the new designated premises supervisor. AM Entertainment (UK) Ltd requested that this change take immediate effect on 5 July 2013.

Neil Hatherall was granted a personal licence in August 2008 by Tamworth Borough Council. Since the grant of this personal licence, Neil Hatherall has been convicted of offences and his personal licence has been endorsed accordingly. A list of the offences is given in the Police objection notice (Appendix 2) and the court register (Appendix 8).

Ordinarily, if no objection notice is received the licensing authority is required to issue the premises licence specifying the new designated premises supervisor as requested. However, on this occasion, the Police served an objection notice requesting the removal of the designated premises supervisor from this post. In their opinion, if this person is allowed to continue in this post the crime prevention objective would be undermined. A copy of this objection notice is enclosed at Appendix 2.

Where a notice is given (and not withdrawn) the authority must hold a hearing to consider the objection notice, confining its deliberations to the crime prevention objective, and take one of the following two steps:

1. allow the designated premises supervisor, Neil Hatherall, to continue in his post; or
2. remove the designated premises supervisor from his post.

In making its decision with a view to promoting the crime prevention objective in the overall interests of the local community, the Committee is required to give appropriate weight to:

- The steps that are necessary to promote the licensing objectives;
- The objection notice (including supporting information) presented by all parties;
- The Council's own licensing policy; and
- The national guidance;

Licensing authorities are expected to record in full the reasons for any decision that they make.

Local policy considerations

A copy of Tamworth Borough Council's Statement of Licensing Policy can be found in Appendix 4.

National Guidance

A copy of the Home Office Amended Guidance Issued Under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 (June 2013) can be found in Appendix 3.

When the Home Office Guidance was amended in 2012 greater weight was given to Police representations. Paragraph 9.12 of the Guidance stipulates that the police should be the licensing authority's main source of advice on matters relating to the promotion of the crime and disorder licensing objective and the "licensing authority should accept all reasonable and proportionate representations made by the Police unless the authority has evidence that to do so would not be appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives."

The Licensing Sub Committee must deviate from this national guidance and Tamworth Borough Council's own licensing policy if the facts of the case demand it in the interests of the promotion of the licensing objectives. If the Licensing Sub Committee does depart from the guidance and Tamworth Borough Council's policy it must be able to provide full reasons.
